

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS27817 / H0566

Idaho Code defines "personal delivery device" and limits the weight of such device to 80 lbs. This legislation amends the definition by allowing personal delivery devices to weigh no more than 200 lbs. The current weight limit is set too low to allow for effective use by delivery companies.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no impact to the general fund or to any local fund because Idaho Code already allows for the use of personal delivery devices and the change to code only applies to the weight of the device.
