What is Mastery Education?

A "system where a student's progress is based upon the demonstration of mastery of competencies, not seat time or the age or grade level of the student."

Idaho Code §33-1632 (5)(b)
HO 110

The Strategy for Idaho

- 1 Facilitate the planning and development of an incubator process and assessments of local education agencies to identify the initial cohort of up to 20 local education agencies to serve as incubators in fiscal year 2017.
- 2 Establish a committee of educators to identify roadblocks and possible solutions in implementing mastery-based education and develop recommendations for the incubator process.
- 3 Conduct a statewide awareness campaign to promote understanding and interest in mastery-based education for teachers, administrators, parents, students, business leaders, and policymakers.

Mastery Education Means

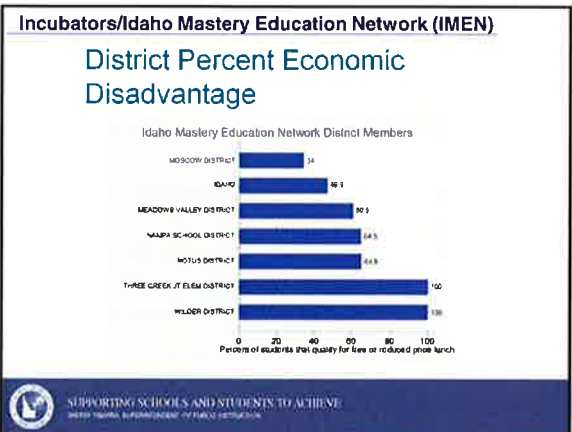

1. Students advance upon demonstrated mastery.
2. Competencies include explicit, measurable, and transferable learning objectives that empower students.
3. Assessment is meaningful and a positive learning experience for students.
4. Students receive timely, differentiated support based on their individual learning needs.
5. Learning outcomes emphasizes competencies that include application and creation of knowledge, along with the development of important skills and dispositions.
