HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 8

BY STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO SECTION 22, ARTICLE I, OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, RELATING TO RIGHTS OF CRIME VICTIMS; STATING THE QUESTION TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE ELECTORATE; DIRECTING THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL TO PREPARE THE STATEMENTS REQUIRED BY LAW; AND DIRECTING THE SECRETARY OF STATE TO PUBLISH THE AMENDMENT AND ARGUMENTS AS REQUIRED BY LAW.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

SECTION 1. That Section 22, Article I, of the Constitution of the State of Idaho be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 22. THE RESPONSIBILITY OF GOVERNMENT TO PROTECT THE RIGHTS OF CRIME VICTIMS. (A) A crime victim, as defined by statute, has the following rights:

- (1) To be treated with fairness, respect, dignity and privacy throughout the criminal justice process.
- (2) To timely disposition of the case.
- (3) To reasonable and timely prior notification, upon request, of trial court, appellate, post-conviction, pardon, commutation and parole proceedings and, upon request, to information about the sentence, and incarceration of the accused and to reasonable and timely notification of the escape, absconsion and release of the defendant accused.
- (4) To be present at all open criminal justice proceedings.
- (5) To communicate confer with the prosecution.
- (6) To be heard, upon request, at all open criminal justice proceedings considering involving a plea of guilty, sentencing, parole, post-conviction relief, incarceration or release of the defendant, unless manifest injustice would result accused and at any open criminal justice proceeding during which a right of the victim is implicated.
- (7) To full and timely restitution, as provided by law, from the person committing the offense that caused the victim's loss.
- (8) To refuse an interview, ex parte contact, or other request by the defendant accused, or any other person acting on behalf of the defendant, unless such request is authorized by law accused.
- (9) To a reasonable and timely opportunity to read the presentence reports relating to the crime.
- (10) To reasonable protection from the accused and those acting on behalf of the accused throughout the criminal justice process.
- (11) To the same rights in juvenile proceedings, where the offense is a felony would be a crime if committed by an adult, as guaranteed in this section, provided that access to the social history report shall be determined by statute.

(B) The crime victim, the crime victim's attorney or other lawful representative, or the attorney for the government upon the government's initiative, or upon request of the crime victim, may assert and seek enforcement of the rights enumerated in this section and any other right afforded to the crime victim by law, which shall be acted upon promptly.

- (C) As used in this section, a "crime victim" is an individual who suffers direct or threatened physical, financial or emotional harm as the result of the commission of a crime or juvenile offense.
- (D) Nothing in this section is intended to, or shall be interpreted to, supersede an accused's federal constitutional rights, nor to afford a victim an independent right to be heard as a party during trial.
- (E) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize a court to dismiss a case, to set aside or void a finding of guilt or an acceptance of a plea of guilty, or to obtain afford a convicted person appellate, habeas corpus, or other relief from any criminal judgment, for a violation of the provisions of this section; nor be construed as creating a cause of action for money damages, costs or attorney fees against the state, a county, a municipality, any agency, instrumentality or person; nor be construed to require the government to provide legal counsel or representation to the crime victim; nor be construed as limiting any rights for crime victims previously conferred by statute. This section shall be self-enacting. The legislature shall have the power to enact laws to define, further implement, preserve, and expand the rights guaranteed to crime victims in the provisions of this section.

SECTION 2. The question to be submitted to the electors of the State of Idaho at the next general election shall be as follows:

"Shall Section 22, Article I, of the Constitution of the State of Idaho be amended to provide additional rights to crime victims, including the right to reasonable and timely notification of open criminal justice proceedings, reasonable protection from the accused, the right to be heard at certain open criminal justice proceedings, and to provide standing to assert their rights?".

- SECTION 3. The Legislative Council is directed to prepare the statements required by Section 67-453, Idaho Code, and file the same.
- SECTION 4. The Secretary of State is hereby directed to publish this proposed constitutional amendment and arguments as required by law.
