

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS27279C2 / S1318

This legislation, known as Fair Chance Employment, is aimed at reducing barriers to employment for formerly incarcerated people who are returning to the workforce upon release from prison or jail. Fair Chance Employment will benefit the State by working to reduce Idaho's recidivism rates, expand the available workforce, and increase economic participation of those formerly incarcerated.

FISCAL NOTE

No fiscal impact as it provides a policy change for employers.
