

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS30715 / H0355

This is the FY 2024 original appropriation for the programs that were recommended by the Joint Legislative Millennium Fund Committee, and not already included in another appropriation bill.

This bill includes enhanced ongoing funding for tobacco and vape compliance checks, and for youth prevention and cessation programs.

The bill includes ongoing funding for the nine community-based recovery centers and for safe and drug free youth programs in the education system.

The bill includes onetime funding for a continued education and awareness campaign on the effects of using vape products, and to develop a statewide comprehensive plan on identifying the most effective and efficient programs for prevention, cessation, and overall health programs for Idaho's youth.

Finally, this bill includes language that provides direction that the use of the funds moving forward will be focused on prevention and cessation programs, especially for Idaho's youth.
