

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS25270C1

This bill establishes a new section of education spending titled, School District Employer Health Care. This section specifies an allocation method to provide the districts with funds for school district employee health insurance costs in an amount equitable and in the same portion as state employee health care cost adjusts. This amount is the amount appropriated for the employer cost adjustment per full-time equivalent employee for the state of Idaho state employee group insurance plan authorized under section 67-5764, Idaho Code.

FISCAL NOTE

The fiscal impact for this legislation will vary depending upon the costs of the state employee health insurance plan. The amount that is recommended for this year Full Time Personnel (FTP) is $860. The total line item in the education budget for the fiscal year 2018 would be $20,260,000.
