To: House Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee
Senate Judiciary and Rules Committee

Pursuant to Idaho Code Section 67-509

The Joint Printing Committee recommends the continued endorsement of limiting the printing of the Idaho Session Laws to a total of 150 volumes per session, given the accessibility and decrease in expenditures associated with online access. The Committee also acknowledges there will be a significant decrease in legislative expenditures from the 2018 publishing price of $4,682 as state agencies are required to cover the cost of the volumes they order.

The Joint Printing Committee also requests that the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be allotted time by their respective presiding officers to continue the process of scanning, reviewing, and uploading historic volumes of Idaho Session Laws to the legislative website during the next two legislative interims.

TITLE 67

STATE GOVERNMENT AND STATE AFFAIRS

CHAPTER 5

ENACTMENT AND OPERATION OF LAWS

67-509. PUBLICATION OF LEGISLATIVE JOURNALS AND SESSION LAWS – DISTRIBUTION AND REPORT. (1) On the first legislative day or as soon thereafter as the speaker shall have been elected, it shall be the duty of the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives each to appoint a printing committee for his body whose duties shall be, in addition to its duties prescribed by the rules of said bodies respectively, to immediately meet in joint session and to provide for the publication of the journals of the two (2) houses of the legislature. Said committee shall determine the form of the journals to be used, the size of the type, the number to be distributed to each member of the legislature and the method of distribution, the number of journals to be made available for sale through the secretary of state's office, and the manner in which the journals are to be bound for the permanent copies of the journal. All costs incurred in publishing the journals shall be a proper charge against the legislative fund, unless an appropriation for such purpose has been made.

(2) The joint printing committee of the senate and house of representatives shall exist to print, publish, and distribute the session laws. The joint printing committee will consist of the printing committees of each house. The chairmen of the respective judiciary and rules committees, or their designee, will chair their house's printing committee and cochair the joint printing committee.

(3) Prior to the final adjournment of a regular legislative session, the joint printing committee must meet and determine the proper method of printing and preserving the session laws of that legislative session. The joint printing committee must give consideration to the cost, accessibility, and preservation of the session laws. The joint printing committee will provide sufficient physical copies of session laws.

(4) The published session laws must include the bills, concurrent resolutions, joint resolutions, petitions and memorials enacted or adopted during the legislative session. In addition, the session laws must include amendments to the constitution adopted at the preceding general election, and bills, concurrent resolutions, joint resolutions, and memorials enacted or adopted during an intervening extraordinary session of the legislature. The published session laws must include a title page, a table of contents, certificate pages, tables of amended and repealed statutes, an index of contents, and a list of each member of the senate and house of representatives.

(5) Prior to the final adjournment of a regular legislative session, the printing committee of each house must meet jointly to consider the proper method to print and preserve the session laws. The joint printing committee will prepare a brief written report of its recommendations, which written report must be delivered to the judiciary and rules committees of the senate and the house of representatives. The written report must include the projected cost to implement its recommendation, together with a distribution list of persons that will be provided printed volume(s) of the session laws. If the written or amended report is rejected by the legislature by concurrent resolution, the joint printing committee will meet to reconsider its recommendations. If the written or amended report is not rejected, the joint printing committee will enter into an agreement(s) that is substantially consistent with its written or amended report to print, publish, and deliver the session laws, which costs will be paid from the legislative account.
