

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS30187 / S1051

This legislation amends the Outfitters and Guides Act to clarify outfitters and guides liability provisions. In particular, the amendment accomplishes three key things: (1) it clarifies that outfitters and guides have some protection from liability unless their conduct is negligent or reckless; (2) it clarifies that written liability waivers are enforceable; and (3) it acknowledges that there are inherent risks associated with outfitting and guiding.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no fiscal impact to the State's General Fund nor the Division's Dedicated Fund because this does not require additional agency oversight.
