

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS31500 / HJM010

This joint memorial articulates the Idaho Legislature's opposition to proposals for the active reintroduction - particularly translocation - of grizzly bears within the state, the establishment of new experimental populations, and efforts to enhance connectivity among existing grizzly bear populations. It emphasizes the Legislature's commitment to maintaining public safety, protecting private property, and preserving Idaho's natural heritage and economic interests, particularly in relation to agriculture and outdoor recreation.

FISCAL NOTE

This legislation will have no impact on the state's General fund or any dedicated fund or federal fund, because it does not affect the operations or activities of any state agency.
